Re: Weiss, Esther v Weiss, Kalman / Index No. 54379/2010

Dear Hon. Judge Adams,

In the past six months I have been deeply involved and supporting Mr. Kalman Weiss regarding his Court matters, he had shared with me almost every move.

At this point I would like to share with the Court some vital information regarding this matter.

Mr. Kalman Weiss is not in his own control to make any decision on his behalf, he is being totally controlled by Mr. Josef Wolhendler who is accompanying him in court, his mother Mrs. Newman, her husband Mr. Newman, and his brother Mr. Chaim Weiss who are making decisions on his behalf against his will.

When Mr. Kalman Weiss attempted on Monday July 18th to free himself from those mentioned above by picking up the Court documents from his prior attorney to provide the new attorney he had chosen, (upon new attorneys request), he was then forced to hand them over said Court documents, and stopped from retaining said attorney or discussing anything further with his supporters.

Mr. Weiss is not acting out of his own mind and free will. Evidence is available to prove all the above. It would be most important that this letter or its contents not be revealed to anyone before this honorable Court has a chance to raise this matter first, as it may well harm Mr. Kalman Weiss and further jeopardize his freedom.

WHEREFORE, I respectfully bring this matter to the courts attention, hoping that an examination by the court would find the above to be true and allow Mr. Kalman Weiss to gain his independence and freedom to make his own decisions.

Respectfully yours
